

PROFILE

Ruth Agesa, OGW, HSC, is an Assistant Director of Education and the Executive Secretary of the Kenya Music Festival. She is in-charge of Music subject, Music Activity and Drama activity in the country. She is a holder of a Masters degree in International Studies from the University of Nairobi, a Bachelors degree of Music from Kenyatta University, International Diploma in Educational Planning and Administration from National University of Educational Planning and Administration, New Delhi India, French Language at Alliance de Française Nairobi and she is currently pursuing her PhD at the Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology.

She is the Protocol officer of the Ministry of Education and a member of Kenya National Days Celebrations Committee in the entertainment sub-committee and the in charge of Pavilion & Decorations of the State House Presidential Dais. In charge of VIP State house Garden party reception during National days. Coordinator of School Children in formation of Mass drills, formation of the Kenya flag on terraces using school children dressed in the Kenya colours T/shirts. She has organized several international and local conferences in her capacity as protocol officer and music specialist for entertainment.

She has been a choir trainer and Drama Director in different primary and secondary schools in the Republic of Kenya. She has been awarded two State commendations by His Excellency, the President of Kenya on 12th December 2011. Order of the Grand warrior (OGW) for exemplary Performance in her duties and Head of State Commendation (HSC) for her devoted service.

She is a member of culture and programming Board of UNESCO (KNATCOM).